Reasons For Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
2. The primary reason for allowance of the claims is the inclusion of "wherein the cancellation circuit receives a reset period signal which becomes active during the period of the reset and make a command signal corresponding to one of the issued start command and the issued resume command not to be transferred to the control circuit when the reset period signal becomes active; and wherein the control circuit performs one of transfer starting and transfer resuming when the processing unit issued one of the start command and the resume command during a period other than the period of the reset" in independent claim 1 and "wherein the pause control circuit pause the transfer processing after the completion of the transfer processing of the step execution." in independent claim 7. Wood et al., U.S patent application publication # 2002/0057893 does not have these limitations.
3. The Examiner's interpretation of the claim language is based upon Applicant's the arguments received on 13 March 2006 (page 8), and the enabling portions of the specification, (Figs. 10, 20-22, pages 4-7, section 1.4 on pages 13-14, pages 24-27, 30-42). Therefore, Applicant's instant claims are considered to be allowable.
4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
5. Claims 1-4, 6-20 that is re-numbered as 1-19 are allowed.
